

Ways to Give to GLA

Please see a select listing of common giving options you might consider in order to provide the greatest impact on teaching and learning through the Greenville Literacy Association.

Make a difference immediately through:

Gifts of Cash

This is a simple and easy way for you to make a gift. You will receive a charitable tax deduction that will provide you with savings on your tax return.

- Make an immediate impact on our mission today.
- Benefit from a charitable income tax deduction.

Employer Matching Gifts

Did you know that thousands of companies across the country match employee contributions to their employees' and retirees' favorite charities? If your company is one of them, you could double or even triple the impact of your donation.

Gifts of Stocks and Bonds

A gift of your securities, including your stocks or bonds, is an easy way for you to make a gift. By making a gift of your appreciated securities, you can avoid paying capital gains tax that would otherwise be due if you sold these assets.

- Avoid paying capital gains tax on the sale of appreciated stock
- Receive a charitable income tax deduction
- Further our mission today

Gifts of Retirement Assets

A gift of your retirement assets, such as a gift from your IRA, 401k, 403b, pension or other tax deferred plan, is an excellent way to make a gift. By making a gift of your retirement assets, you can advance learning through the GLA.

- Avoid potential estate tax on retirement assets
- Your heirs would avoid income tax on any retirement assets funded on a pre-tax basis
- Receive potential estate tax savings from an estate tax deduction

Plan a Future Gift:

In order to make a lasting gift to support GLA into the future while providing you and your beneficiaries with significant tax benefits, you might consider including the Greenville Literacy Association in your estate planning. Your commitment can make a meaningful impact on the lives of adults for years to come.
